CRIMINAL NO. 13-3367 RB

PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the parties hereby notify the Court of the following agreement between the United States Attorney for the District of New Mexico, the defendant, JESSICA MARIE GOMEZ, and the defendant's counsel, CORI HARBOUR-VALDEZ:

REPRESENTATION BY COUNSEL

1. The defendant understands the defendant's right to be represented by an attorney and is so represented. The defendant has thoroughly reviewed all aspects of this case with the defendant's attorney and is fully satisfied with that attorney's legal representation.

RIGHTS OF THE DEFENDANT

2. The defendant further understands the following rights:
- a. to plead not guilty;
 - b. to have a trial by jury;
 - c. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses to testify for the defense; and
 - d. against compelled self-incrimination.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY

3. The defendant hereby agrees to waive these rights and to plead guilty to the lesser included offense in Count 1 and Counts 42 and 43 of the Indictment. The lesser included offense in Count 1 charges Conspiracy to Distribute a Mixture and Substance Containing a Detectable Amount of Methamphetamine, contrary to 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C), and in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846; Count 42 charges a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 843(b): Use of a Communication Facility to Further the Commission of a Drug Trafficking Crime; 18 U.S.C. § 2: Aiding and Abetting; and Count 43 charges a violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C): Possession with Intent to Distribute a Mixture and Substance Containing a Detectable Amount of Methamphetamine, and 18 U.S.C. § 2, Aiding and Abetting.

SENTENCING

4. The defendant understands that the minimum and maximum penalty the Court can impose as to Counts 1 and 43 is:

- a. imprisonment for a period of not more than twenty (20) years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $1,000,000.00;
- c. a mandatory term of supervised release of not less than three (3) years. (If the defendant serves a term of imprisonment, is then released on supervised release, and violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant's supervised release could be revoked--even on the last day of the term--and the defendant could then be returned to another period of incarceration and a new term of supervised release); and
- d. a mandatory special penalty assessment of $100.00.

5. The defendant understands that the minimum and maximum penalty the Court can impose as to Count 42 is:

- a. imprisonment for a period not greater than four (4) years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $250,000;
- c. a mandatory term of supervised release of not more than one (1) year. (If the defendant serves a term of imprisonment, is then released on supervised release, and violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant's supervised release could be revoked--even on the last day of the term--and the defendant could then be returned to another period of incarceration and a new term of supervised release); and

d. a mandatory special penalty assessment of $100.00.

6. The defendant may be eligible for the "safety valve" provisions set forth at 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(1)-(5) and USSG § 5C1.2. If the defendant establishes eligibility for each of the elements in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(1)-(5) and USSG § 5C1.2, the defendant would be entitled to a reduction of two levels from the base offense level as calculated under the sentencing guidelines, and the sentence imposed could be less than the statutory minimum sentence described above. This reduction depends on, among other requirements of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f), the defendant truthfully providing to the Government, before sentencing, all information and evidence concerning the offenses that were part of the same course of conduct underlying this agreement. Additionally, this reduction depends on the defendant having not more than one criminal history point as determined under the sentencing guidelines.

7. The parties recognize that the Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, and that the Court is required to consider them in determining the sentence it imposes.

8. It is expressly understood and agreed by and between the defendant and the United States that:

a. The United States has made, and will make, NO AGREEMENT pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), that a specific sentence is the appropriate disposition of this case.

b. The United States has made, and will make, NO AGREEMENT to approve, to oppose, or not to oppose pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), any request made by the defendant or on behalf of the defendant for a particular sentence in this case, other than the stipulations agreed to below.

c. The United States hereby expressly reserves the right to make known to the United States Probation Office and to the Court, for inclusion in the presentence report prepared pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32, any information that the United States believes may be helpful to the Court, including but not limited to information about any relevant conduct under USSG § 1B1.3.

d. The defendant recognizes that this plea agreement has already conferred a benefit upon the defendant and that no downward departure is appropriate. Consequently, in return for the benefit conferred on the defendant by entering into this agreement, the defendant agrees not to seek a downward departure or variance from the applicable offense level or criminal history category as determined by the Court. This specifically precludes any claim by the defendant, pursuant to USSG § 4A1.3, that the criminal history category overstates the seriousness of defendant's criminal history. The defendant agrees that the advisory guideline range as determined by the agreed upon stipulations is reasonable in light of 18 U.S.C. § 3553 and United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005). The defendant agrees not to seek a sentence below the advisory guideline range. If the defendant, in violation of this paragraph, should nevertheless seek a downward departure or variance, the United States reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to withdraw this plea agreement and to proceed to trial on all charges before the Court.

e. Except under circumstances where the Court, acting on its own, fails to accept this plea agreement, the defendant agrees that, upon the defendant's signing of this plea agreement, the facts that the defendant has admitted under this plea agreement as set forth below, as well as any facts to which the defendant admits in open court at the defendant's plea hearing, shall be admissible against the defendant under Federal Rule of Evidence 801(d)(2)(A) in any subsequent proceeding, including a criminal trial, and the defendant expressly waives the defendant's rights under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(f) and Federal Rule of Evidence 410 with regard to the facts the defendant admits in conjunction with this plea agreement.

DEFENDANT'S ADMISSION OF FACTS

9. By my signature on this plea agreement, I am acknowledging that I am pleading guilty because I am, in fact, guilty of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty. I recognize and accept responsibility for my criminal conduct. Moreover, in pleading guilty, I acknowledge that if I chose to go to trial instead of entering this plea, the United States could prove facts sufficient to establish my guilt of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, including any facts alleged in the Indictment that increase the statutory minimum or maximum penalties. I specifically admit the following facts related to the charges against me, and declare under penalty of perjury that all of these facts are true and correct:

During June of 2013, I was involved in a conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute methamphetamine. Specifically, on June 5, 2013, at the direction of a methamphetamine source of supply in Arizona, I picked up approximately two pounds of methamphetamine and traveled towards Las Cruces, New Mexico, intending to deliver the methamphetamine to Robert Christner. While in route to meet with Christner, I spoke with him on the telephone and told him that I was on my way but that I was running a little late. When I arrived in Las Cruces, New Mexico, in the early morning hours of June 6, 2013, the police seized approximately two pounds of methamphetamine from the vehicle that I was driving.

10. By signing this agreement, the defendant admits that there is a factual basis for each element of the crime(s) to which the defendant will plead guilty. The defendant agrees that the Court may rely on any of these facts, as well as facts in the presentence report, to determine the defendant's sentence, including, but not limited to, the advisory guideline offense level.

STIPULATIONS

11. The United States and the defendant stipulate as follows:

a. Pursuant to USSG § 2D1.1(c), the parties stipulate that the defendant is responsible for 500-1500 grams of methamphetamine.

b. Pursuant to USSG § 3E1.1(a), the defendant has clearly demonstrated a recognition and affirmative acceptance of personal responsibility for the defendant's criminal conduct. Consequently, so long as the defendant continues to accept responsibility for the defendant's criminal conduct, the defendant is entitled to a reduction of two (2) levels from the base offense level as calculated under the sentencing guidelines. This reduction is contingent upon the defendant providing an appropriate oral or written statement to the United States probation officer who prepares the presentence report in this case in which the defendant clearly establishes the defendant's entitlement to this reduction.

c. Provided the defendant meets the requirements of USSG § 3E1.1(b), the government agrees to move for a reduction of one (1) additional level from the base offense level as calculated under the sentencing guidelines.

d. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2, the defendant was a minor participant in the criminal activity underlying this agreement. Consequently, the defendant is entitled to a reduction of two (2) levels from the base offense level as calculated under the sentencing guidelines.

e. If the defendant meets all of the criteria set forth at 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f) and USSG § 5C1.2, including providing a complete and truthful statement to the Government concerning all information and evidence the defendant has about the offense or offenses that were part of the same course of conduct underlying this agreement, the defendant is entitled to a reduction of two (2) levels, pursuant to USSG § 2D1.1(b)(16).

f. The United States Sentencing Commission has proposed an amendment to USSG § 2D1.1(c). If application of the amended guideline in this case would result in a lower offense level, the United States does not oppose a variance solely to give the Defendant the benefit of this amendment as if the amendment were in effect on the date of this agreement. In exchange, the Defendant agrees not to seek a further reduction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2) based on this proposed amendment to USSG § 2D1.1 if this proposed amendment is adopted and made retroactive by the Sentencing Commission.

g. The defendant agrees that she has no exculpatory information regarding any of the co-defendants in this case.

12. The defendant understands that the above stipulations are not binding on the Court and that whether the Court accepts these stipulations is a matter solely within the discretion of the Court after it has reviewed the presentence report. Further, the defendant understands that the Court may choose to vary from the advisory guideline sentence. The defendant understands that if the Court does not accept any one or more of the above stipulations and reaches an advisory guideline sentence different than expected by the defendant, or if the Court varies from the advisory guideline range, the defendant will not seek to withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty. In other words, regardless of any stipulations the parties may enter into, the defendant's final sentence is solely within the discretion of the Court.

DEFENDANT'S OBLIGATIONS

13. The defendant understands the defendant's obligation to provide the United States Probation Office with truthful, accurate, and complete information, including, but not limited to defendant's true identity, citizenship status, and any prior criminal convictions. The defendant hereby represents that the defendant has complied with and will continue to comply with this obligation. The defendant understands that any misrepresentation with respect to the above obligations may be considered a breach of this plea agreement.

WAIVER OF APPEAL RIGHTS

14. The defendant is aware that 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742 afford a defendant the right to appeal a conviction and the sentence imposed. Acknowledging that, the defendant knowingly waives the right to appeal this conviction and any sentence, including any fine, at or under the maximum statutory penalty authorized by law. In addition, the defendant agrees to waive any collateral attack to this conviction and the sentence imposed, including any fine, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241, 2255, or any other extraordinary writ, except on the issue of counsel's ineffective assistance in negotiating or entering this plea or this waiver.

GOVERNMENT'S AGREEMENT

15. Provided that the defendant fulfills the defendant's obligations as set out above, the United States agrees not to bring additional criminal charges against the defendant arising out of the facts forming the basis of the present Indictment.

16. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Mexico and does not bind any other federal, state, or local agencies or prosecuting authorities.

VOLUNTARY PLEA

17. The defendant agrees and represents that this plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force, threats or promises (other than the promises set forth in this plea agreement and any addenda). There have been no representations or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

VIOLATION OF PLEA AGREEMENT

18. The defendant understands and agrees that if the defendant or the defendant's attorney violates any provision of this plea agreement, the United States may declare this plea agreement null and void, and the defendant will thereafter be subject to prosecution for any criminal violation including, but not limited to, any crime(s) or offense(s) contained in or related to the charges in this case, as well as perjury, false statement, and obstruction of justice, and any other crime committed by the defendant during prosecution of this case.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

19. At the time of sentencing, the defendant will tender a money order or certified check payable to the order of the United States District Court, District of New Mexico, 333 Lomas Boulevard, NW, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87102, in the amount of $300.00 in payment of the special penalty assessment described above.

ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

20. This document and any addenda are a complete statement of the agreement in this case and may not be altered unless done so in writing and signed by all parties. The parties agree and stipulate that this agreement will be considered part of the record of defendant's guilty plea hearing as if the entire agreement had been read into the record of the proceeding. This agreement is effective upon signature by the defendant and an Assistant United States Attorney, and upon entry of a guilty plea by the defendant pursuant to this agreement.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 27th day of August, 2014.
